

Press Release
First Congregational Church
December 6, 2006

Title: “O Savior Where Art Thou” This Christmas Eve?

First Congregational Church of Manchester warmly invites the community to O Savior Where Art Thou, a rollicking, moving bluegrass version of the nativity story this Christmas Eve.

Rehearsals are underway with a 14 member cast and a live bluegrass band, the Snowy Bottom Boys, under the direction of local musician Jake Geppert.

O SAVIOR starts “in the beginning” as Adam and Eve, newly evicted from the garden, wonder who will save them, the question is repeated by Jeremiah, angels, not so wise guys, and shepherds. Their search is finally completed with the birth of the Christ.

Punctuated with humor and spoken in the rural vernacular, O Savior promises to be a hit with everyone in the family. Performance is during the 4:00 PM Family Christmas Eve Service, December 24th, at First Congregational Church in Manchester Village located just across the street from the Equinox Hotel on 7A. Admission is free but an offering will be taken.

Additional Christmas Eve services of candles and lessons will be held at 10:30 am and 8:00 pm. For more information contact Bev. at 362-2709 or fstcongo@adelphia.net. Visit any time at www.firstcongregationalmanchester.org.